YOUR EMPLOYABILITY IN PRACTICE

Activity instructions:

In the activity below, add your own examples of the skills and attributes that you have identified that you have developed.

In the first column, provide the skill or attribute and its general definition. In the second column, add a list of the kinds of attitudes and behaviours that demonstrate the skill or attribute in the workplace. The first row is filled out for you with the example of commitment.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Employer expectation</th>
<th>Workplace example</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Commitment: To dedicate yourself to something and turn a promise into action | - Ability to set goals and meet them
- Follow through on work that you promise to achieve
- Punctuality |

Your answers in the expectations column are basically the dictionary definition of the term. Your workplace context examples should show the actions and attitudes that you would display if you were to embody the expectation in the workplace.