

Visiting Fellows Public Seminar

Professor Ronald Barnett

Emeritus Professor of Higher Education at the Institute of Education, University of London

‘This Place Changed My Life’: Student transformation for an uncertain world

A significant proportion of students coming through the university inhabit a complex world with an uncertain career paths and unknown futures - so what do we teach them?

This workshop will highlight key challenges faced by academics in curriculum renewal and strategies to address them. It will also identify the professional learning opportunities that the University can provide to support academics enhance curriculum renewal skills.

- Date: Thursday, 6 July 2017
- Time: 2:00pm - 4:00pm
- Venue: Room 329, Steele Building 3 (view on map)

Click here to register for the seminar

About the Presenter

Ron is a leading analyst of higher education and works tirelessly to advance a social philosophy of the university. His work focuses on identifying creative concepts and practical principles that offer ways of enhancing universities and higher education. He has published extensively on higher education research, policy and practice and has acted as consultant for most of the leading national bodies in higher education. More information available here.

THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA